

Partnership Benefits for the Local Church

- Provides a way to mobilize church members for missionary outreach in the community
- Provides ministry opportunities for all ages, from teens to seniors
- Gives the church visibility in the community
- Builds relationships with unchurched children and families
- Establishes a safe haven for unchurched families—somewhere to turn when needs arise or when looking for a church to attend
- Maintains a vision for lost souls before the congregation through verbal reports, prayer needs, praises, bulletin inserts regarding club activities and testimonies
- Trains and develops new children's workers not only for service in clubs, but for the children's ministry program within the church
- Increases the outreach of the church's children's ministries program
- Provides contacts to invite Good News Club children and families to attend special church activities
- Facilitates the spiritual maturity of team members as they are involved in ministry in neighborhoods and schools
- Leads to church growth
- Allows your church to be a blessing to the children, the school, and to the nation.
